

Resolution Regarding Molly Rauch

WHEREAS, the District of Columbia Commission on Climate Change & Resiliency is an independent body formed by the District of Columbia government;

WHEREAS, the Commission is charged to assess the District's actions to mitigate and adapt to climate change and report these findings to the Mayor and members of the Council of the District of Columbia.

WHEREAS, the Commission champions climate actions which serve residents and communities in a just and equitable manner, protect infrastructure and advance our economy and quality of life in the nation's capital.

WHEREAS, Molly Rauch served on the Commission as members since its founding,

WHEREAS, during her service to the Commission, Molly Rauch provided invaluable insight, perspective, and guidance to the Commission, including as serving as contributors the Commission's First and Second Report to the Mayor and Council of the District of Columbia;

WHEREAS, the Commission seeks to publicly recognize the commitment, dedication, and contributions to the Commission by Molly Rauch; NOW,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Commission acknowledges and extends its gratitude to Molly Rauch for her distinguished service and lasting contributions to the Commission and its mission.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Resolution is saved in the permanent minutes of the Commission and a copy of this Resolution is given to Molly Rauch.

Passed by resolution by the District of Columbia Commission on Climate Change & Resiliency on June 8, 2023

Uwe S. Brandes, Chair